

Cruise for a Cause 6 – June 1, 2006

The weather during the week hadn't been great but – as usual – it changed just in time for CharterAbility's seventh cruise, the third out of Port Credit.

So, we had artists at the dock and a collection of art work on board with a painting of the Wayward Princess being sold during our silent auction while the paint was still drying – a true original if ever there was one!

As usual, Julia's Ristorante was on-hand with the hors d'oeuvres on the pier along with oysters from Big Daddy's and samosas from the Rude Native bistro. La Villa provided the pastries and Lago's took care of the martini bar which is now an established tradition. Add to that, coffee from Timothy's and floral arrangements from the Monarch Florists and it's not hard to understand why our guests enjoy themselves so much.

And that was before the Chuck Jackson Trio got going! A virtuoso performance by Chuck and his friends had the boat swaying and folks on the dance floor all night long. Truly a great band!

Somehow, between everything else, our guests enjoyed a fine meal prepared on board by the crew of the Wayward Princess. And, they even found time to bid at our silent auction making it the most successful one yet.

Everyone had a great time thanks to the generosity of our sponsors to whom we are immensely grateful – as always.
